

Jackson Guyton to Andrew Jackson Clingan; which said bill being read by its title, was referred to a select committee, consisting of Messrs. Yoe, Miller and Beatty.

Mr. Stockett chairman of the select committee appointed on the subject, reported a bill, entitled, An act to alter and amend the constitution and form of government, so far as relates to the council to the governor, and for other purposes.

Mr. Hughlett chairman of the select committee appointed on the subject, reported a bill, entitled, An act to authorise the justices of the levy courts in the several counties of this state, to protect the roofs of their court houses from the effects of fire.

Mr. Turner, as chairman of the committee on divorces, to which the subject had been referred, reported a bill, entitled, An act for the relief of Rhody Clarkin, of the city of Baltimore.

Mr. Smith, of Worcester, chairman of the select committee appointed on the subject, reported a bill, entitled, An act for the benefit of James White and James W. Melvin, executors of James Melvin, late of Accomac county, in the Commonwealth of Virginia.

Mr. Done, chairman of the select committees, to which the subjects had, respectively, been referred, reported bills, entitled,

An act to authorise the levy court of Somerset county to levy a sum of money for the use of Mason Abbot, of said county. And,

An act to revive an act to provide for the appointment of commissioners for the regulation and improvement of Princess-Anne, in Somerset county, passed at December session 1815, chapter 73, and the several supplements thereto.

Mr. Burchenal, chairman of the select committee, to which the subject had been referred, reported a bill, entitled, An act for the benefit of Rickson Webb, a coloured man, of Caroline county. And,

Mr. Kemp, from the select committee, to which the subject had been referred, reported a bill, entitled, An act for the relief of George Hape, of Frederick county.

Which said bills, being severally read the first time, were ordered to lie on the table.

Mr. M. Mahon of Baltimore city, from the committee on internal improvement to which had been referred the bill from the senate, entitled, An additional supplement to the act for making the river Susquehannah navigable from the line of this state to tide water, reported verbally, that the said committee, having considered the said bill, were of the opinion it ought to pass without amendment.

The said bill was then read the first time, and ordered to lie on the table.

Mr. Steuart of Baltimore city, chairman of the select com-